noru is a preprinces in the breath of Mora, There is a negative in the fall of Breat, There is a reputer in the most begin By Lark rejoicing up the season begin In summer

By Lark rejacing up the wash of Heisens I is numer days to see the historiar's bloom, And each the fragrance which the wild flow To iye along the turt, and hear the hum Of insects aporting in the suphenner glow? Or on the shalfy tilde of super genes hill To took upon some valley, arrected away, Through whose rich become whole a wanton ri And o'er whose pastwess flocks incumerous All this is batenifal; and if the while Upon the ear the nones of music die, Gistoriet by distant shepherd, who beguile The Bredsig hours with rural minarriery!

Canoned by distant shepkerd, who occuping The Revelop hours with rared ministrally! Then does the soul feel ravishment: arise Voluptious transports in the boosen: then The place around appears a Farnskin.

The sheet around appears a Farnskin then! She to the pow're! Misure: yet there swelled to be the pow're! Misure: Yet the pow're! Are the pow're! Misure: The house present, the gives to woman her supremacy!

Oh! these are they that over every soul Come with enduring infigures; that bind In silken slavery, in soft controus,

The hopes and destiny of every mind!

IAGO

BOULOGNE SUR MER, FEB. 15.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE STAR. TO THE RDITOR OF THE STAIL.

SIR.—There being some inaccuracies in the paragraph appearing in your Paper of the 27th ult. relative to a recent trial before the tribunal of this place, wherein Mr. Hamilton, his Britannic Majesty's Vice-Consul here, was plaintiff, and Mr. Dunand, a French resident physician, was defendant, instituted for an assault, with irritating and defamatory language, I take the liberty of correcting the same, and sending you a brief statement of the case.

physician, was defendant, instituted for an assault, with irritating and defamatory language, I take the liberty of correcting the same, and sending you a brief statement of the case.

The Nobleman who was examined on the behalf of Mr. Hamilton, was Lord Semple, and not Lord Temple. The damages laid by plaintiff were 500 francs, instead of several thousands, and no compromise, or any apology was ever proposed by of for defendant.

The origin of this affair was in consequence of a professional demand of one thousand and twenty-six francs, made by the defendant, on the estate of the late Sir Brooke Boothby, who rented apartments in defendant's house, and where he died. This demand, however, was resisted by Mr. Hamilton, as acting executor for Sir William Boothby, conceiving himself unwarranted in paying it, from his having ample tensionally that defendant was not professionally employed by Sir Brooke, who was constantly attended by an English Medical Centleman, also resident here; and patitularly as Sir Brooke Boothby had informed him to that effect a short time before his death; but that, as he had shewn him some attentions, he should wish a small pecuniary present to be made him, and in consequence thereof, Mr. Hanvilton offered the defendant few hundred francs, which he accepted, and for which he gave a receipt. Not withstanding this, defendant, two days after, wrote a very abusive letter to the blaintiff, stating that the sum he had received was only in part payment of his demand, and observing, that he should always consider deceased's family as indebted to him for the remainder. The next proceeding of defendant was repeated personal insult and abuse towards Mr. Hamilton, whose pre-ence of mind properly suggestend to him that it would be diggracing the honourable situation he holds to resent this unjustification of the remainder. The next proceeding of defendant was repeated personal insult and abuse towards Mr. Hamilton the use of the poor, and a further sum of fifty francs by way of five, besides the whole

We have been much gratified in viewing the Model of Paris, now exhibiting at the Westena Exchange, in Old Bond-street. The whole is very ingenious as well as accurate, and is the labour of nearly 15 years, being cut at in wood, interspersed with trees and foliage, bearing proportion of about a thousandth part of the real size. The Alliance Insurance Company was the first to set the example of incorporating, as it were, the interests of Nations, by extending to foreigners the benefit of an Insurance Establishment, of which they might avail themselves with the fullest confidence, and with perfect safety; an advantage of which the subjects of foreign Bustos canwell estimate the value. It is to the desire every where felt shroad to benefit by this security, that the Alliance Company owes its success and its prosperity. Whatever tends to encourage the mutual confidence between nations, and to multiply their common interests, ought on all occasions to be cultivated. There is no mode so effectual for preserving throughout Europe the relations of peace and annity." Every day is bringing the great Commonwealth of Christendom into a state of mose intimate communication, and we rejoice in every new communication, and we rejoice in every new communication.

MIDDLESEX SESSIONS, FEB. 19.

Devid Pugh, was indicated for a fraud, in fulledly pretending, so Benjathin (Really thit, he was a sheriff's officer, and had authority to arrest him, and obtaining from him $2.10a$. The prosession stated that he is a builder, and resides at Chebasa; at ten o'clock at night, on Saturday, the $25 of January, the prisoner came to his house and preduced a writ against him, at the suit of a person named Bryant, for 300, on which he arrested him, saying he was a sheriff's officer. Witnessi: wife was so frightmed, that she fuinted. The wisoner proposed to witness to give him a fee of $5. and he would allow hint to remain at home, and on Monday henigh give bail. Witness consented to give him $2.10a$, which be took, and went away. Witness gave bail to the writ on Monday and the prisoner came to hi house again the next Saturday night, with another person, and made a distrabance at the door, which witness refused to open. Witness did not owe say money to Bryant, who was then a prisoner in the King's Bench, and considerably in debt to witness.

Mr. Henchman, the Under Sheriff, proved that the prisoner was not a sheriff's officer.

— King proved, that he was an acquaintance of the prisoner, who, on the Saturday after the arrest, asked him to walk with him to Chelies, where he said he fad a fiel, from whom he had got one fee, and expected to get another.

The prisoner, in his defence, said he had sent in the (Jees, treat waspass in an age of the prisoner, in his defence, said he had sent in the names of his securities as a sheriff's officer, and shought he might call himself one; and he took the fee to settle the business for prosecutor, and save expense. The Jary, whose the skinds, found the prison Castly, and he was sentenced to four months' imprisonment in the House of

be was sentenced to four months' imprisonment in the House of Correction.

The King of the Netherlands has contributed, out of his privy porse, 100,000 flotins (or about 80004) for relief of the sufferers by the late inondations. As his Majery's income is not very extravagant, this Ministers have proposed to the States General a vote of credit of eight millions of floins, to repair those disasters. In the New York Evening Past of the 24th ult. there is an extract of a letter from Washington, dated January 21, in which the writer, speaking of the contest for the Presidency, says—"The success of General Jackson is morally certain. I will not pronounce what will be the result of the first ballot, but I have not a doubt that he will get eight Western States, three Middle, and two Southern."

A few weeks ago, an alarming robbery was committed on the premises of Mr. Matthews, a wholesale boot and shoe-maker in Blackfriart-road. Several persons were apprehended, and after several examinations, committed for trial as persons concerned in the burglary. A crowd of persons have been collected around Mr. Matthews; door and shop all day, attracted by broken windows; placarded with large bills, offering handsome rewards for the discovery of the depredators; who, it appears, have been hourly in the practice of annoying Mr. Matthews, and taking every opportunity to destroy his property, by throwing stones and other missiles into every window of his house, so that it now presents the appearance of having stood a regular siege; he has also received many anony mous letters of a threatening nature, declaring if he persists in prosecuting the parties committed, he shall have greater cause to lament than the loss of his three thousand pair of boots and shoes.

Friday evening, as two of the Bow-street pairol were have in now presents the appearance of having roads a which has accepted and of which the accepted and the acceptance of the acceptance of

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

POLICE NOTELIGENCE.

Folge was an Signified paint invested before. It., Marsianti, on a second of the control o

MIARLBOROUGH-STREET.

Miss Oaker, a young Lady redding at Vetraes Terraes, Planlloo, came to communicate an arroctom attack that had been made upon her life by one of those persons denominated "monstera."— Alliss Oakes said she was approaching Hyde Vart-corner about seven clock: in the evening, accompanded by her servant; when a respectably dressed man came from Park-lane, and crossing very rapidly, streak a banck-hand bow set her side. She was greatly glarmed, and on arriving bome, the eraunined her dress, and on the same side where she had received the biow, she found an instrument had rappe.—The servant confirmed her mixten's statement, and the inciation made in the gown was also shewn to the Mightrate.

Mr. Coskary said, no effective step could be taken, unless the persons who made the attack was known. He regerted that such wretches were in existence, ard congratulated Aliss Oakes upon her estape.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.

The Ener and Siller Books most to me

PEDESTRIANISM

picking up one hundred means with his meanth in 60 winners may account, and walkingular makin on an horn; all witch his account-picked.

Skitzerday, a kine those place, to decide a wager of a range and disons, between two Gentlement (Ale. T. Bert and Mr. G. Wigney); it was which of the row, expicitable half the Brighted Marriers, drawn by himmatives, the state of the considerable half the Brighted Marriers, account by thomatives, the side of the considerable half the Brighted his have made a proposed to the proposed of the protection of the prote

CAMBRIDGE, FEBRUARY 18.
Pairss—The subjects for the present yes not bachefors—De statu future quantum races et Romanos Philosophorum dogan consecutives et Romanos Philosophorum dogan prosi lis inter se mercibus.

OX FORD, FEBRUARY 19.
17, Mr. Anthony Grant was admitted S

compounder.

Mattras or Arss.—Robert Perfect, Queen's College, grand Mattras or Arss.—Robert Perfect, Queen's College, Rev.
Thomas Hattam Wilkinson, Extet College; Jemes Hardwicke
Dyer, Trinity College; Rev. William Hent Everard, Ballial Colleges
Bacutans or Aras—Robert Sherson, St. Mary Hall; Thomas
Archer Bewes, Extet College; William Polwhele, Exteer College; Bernot College; Legrand Venables Vernon, Student of Christ Chatch;
Francis Baseett, Triaity College; Brook George Ebidges, Oriel College; Edward Harbin, Wadham College;
The Rev. Adam Sodgwick, M.A. Woodwardian Professor, and Fellows of Trinity College, Cambridge, is presented by the Matter and Fellows of that Society, to the Visings of Budy Camps, in Cambridgeshire, vacant by the resignation of the Rev. George Mer. Beeres Basen. No. 20.

and Fellows of that Society, to the Vicarage of Shady Camps, in Cambridge-birs, vacant by the resignation of the Hev. George Micfalanc.

Hev. George Possons, B.D. Fellow of St. John's College, Cam-ley, Company of the Company of the Charter House, to the Heck Willred Clarks.

A Dispensation has passed the Great Seal, enabling the Rev. Thomas Cor. D.D. Rector of Orbillt, to hold the Rectory of Athericon-upon-Stour, both in the County of Warwick, and Dis-cesse of Worcester.

MEETINGS of CREDITORS at BASINGHALL STREET, TO MORROW.

J. Storer, Mount-street, Hanover-squart, successions assession martinea.

S. Gracoch, Gray's Inn-lane read, oliman, at 11.

T. Hughes, Speldhurst-street, Burton-freecent, draper, at 10.

M. Nathan, Gorog-street, Adelphi, bill-broker, at 12.

J. Wood, Great Russell-street, Bloombury, silversmith, at 10.

J. Humphreys, Vanishal Bridge-road, carpenter, at 10.

J. Humphreys, Vanishal Bridge-road, carpenter, at 10.

DIVIDENDS.

J. Bond, Cawston, Norfolk, farmer, at 8.

Dann and Co. Catsham and Sheeriens, hanhers, at 12.

W. Fry, Type-street and Peckham, letter-founder, at 10.

Hayes and Blunden, Onford-street, filmen-drapers, at 18.

J. Newell, Beaconsfield, draper, at 10.

S. Sharpin, Davies-street, Beacherly square, glass-dealer, at 12.

T. Weller, Croydon, watch-maker, at 2.

PETITIONS of INSOLVENT DEBTORS, to be heard in PORTUGAL-STRRET, Licedin's Lan-Rieds, on WEDNES-DAY, February 33, at Nine in the Forence.

Jane Bedeock, Chius-row, Lambeth, lundress.
James Burford, Swallow-streets, St. James's, carpenter.
James Tebbett, North-place, Ball's-pond, shoemaker.
Benjamin Hill, New-street, Balteress-Belds, Intchityer.
Orlin Hugh, Kunt-street, Southwark, rope-maker, &c.
Henry Lewes Sanders, Bosumonacturet, S. Marya-bosme, ur-

Charles Frederick John Strand, journeyman par manufacturer. Thomas Driffield, Eugez-treet, Strand, journeyman par Thomas Ambroos, St. John's, Hackney, baker. Henry Staples, Marine Crescent, Bermondey, towar James Bousted, Tanh-street, journeyman cochmaker. John Burlington, Freithum, victualler. William Wright, Deptford, stable-keeper. George Philcox, Canterbury, watchmaker.

February 8, at Cha

Thursday, at Brighton, Will cashire, to Charlotte Mary, di Esq. of Liverpool. At Torres am Rutson, Eeq. of Allerton, Lan-ughter of the late William Ewart, of Liverpool.

Torquay, Devon, the Rev. W. Gretton, Vicar of Withington
Treston Wynne, to Lucy, second daughter of the late Rev.
Ireland, Vicar of Frome, Somerset.

rem. tretand, Vicer of Frome, Somerest.

DIED.

Thursday, at his house at Lilipston, the Rev. Wm. Draper, in his 90th year, universally respected.

At the Vicerage, Bast Friday, and the 6th February, Louise and site months of the respective of the Rev. Alice Cooper, and the most has been contained as the respective of the Rev. Alice Cooper, and there yet a few sizes of Lagestre, it is a few sizes of Lagestre, it is a few sizes of Lagestre, it is of A few days sizes, at Lagestre, Relieve of the Society.

Wednesday, after a few days illness, of the Society.

Wednesday, after a few days illness, of the Bostony.

Manual Cooper, and Converty Fellow of Corpus Christi College, Oxford.

		MAILS—THIS DAY.			201
Dublia	•	7	Prince	1	0
Waterford	- :		Hamburgh		1
Guernoy and Jerse	- 100	ā	Flanders	1	- 1
Lisbon		ō	Holland	1	•
Gottenburgh		5	Leeward Islands	. 0	•
Jamaica	ŏ	ō	America		1